The List of Democrats Angious to Get Positions.

GREAT UNCERTAINTY PREVAILS

The Car May Jump in Any Direction Once the String of the Bag is Jerked.

There is any amount of group in demseral circles on the subject of the federal appointments for western Michigan, but, singularly enough, the supposition provails quite largely that the little cuterie of democrats who made themselves conspicuous about congressional headquarters last full will get all the offices, and that nobody eise is in it. In other words it will all be as Richardson says, and as Richardson has prom-son says and as he harded has prom-leed his principal assistants his influ-sace, that's all there is to it.

Those really on the inside of the situ-ation know nothing is water from the truth. Aside from the well-known lim-ited adjinence of a first term congress-man. Mr. Hichards, a is further deburred from carrying out his personal wishes by the great Detroit moguls. Don M. Dickinson and Daniel J. Watson Will Get There.

At any rate all concerned concede that Watson has a cinch for the collectorship of customs for the district comprising the custern shore of Lake Michigan. As to Thomas F. Carroll's chances for the postoffice, there is some unorganized supposition. Dickinson has not slated Mr. Carroll, although, strange to say, candidates are prefty source for that office. It is quite impossible that At S. White will be postmaster of Grand Raphis, for he has already retired and Frank W. Hall is considered as a very unprom-

Leval democrats are wondering where W. R. Weston will get his pull for the office of collector of internal revenue. They say that he has no bucking aside from that of Richardson and I. M. Westen. Short Legislative Sessions.

"I can't see how this session of the legislature can be shortened very much," said the Hon. Philip B. Wachtel of Pe-toskey in The Morton last night. "Noth-ing but municipal legislation has been attended to yet and there is an unknown quantity of it to come. It seems as if every city and village in the state wanted something. I know of no way to dispose with any of the business way to dispose with any of the business other than to let it pass through the regular channels. If the constitution could be amended so as to permit cities to incorporate themselves it would be a great relief to the legislature. Then if Detroit wanted her charter amended or Grand Rapids wished to abolish her su perior court they could do it, and do it to suit themselves. There seems to be quite a little excitement in judicial cir-cles up our way," said Mr. Wachtel. "The democrats of the thirteenth defeated Pailthorpe in the convention and nominated Brown of St. Ignace. Now the republicans in the Grand Traverse district are having a lively time, and an attempt is being made to defeat Judge Ramsdell."

WEAK, NERVOUS WOMEN.

Dr. Laury McHenry Gives Them Some Good Advice.

HEADACHE AND WEAKNESS

The Doctor Tells How They May Br Quickly Relieved-lie Says Women Are Suffering Needless Pain. The Secret of Their Hap-

"Oh, how my head aches."

Far too often is this exclamation made by some suffering woman. She is weak and nervous, and some excitement, some strain on the nerves, has brought on a racking headache. She has chilly feelracking headache. She has chilly feelings, a sickness at the stemach, and other painful symptoms, but along all she has this throbbing, this nerve splitting aching of the head which nothing seems to relieve.

Can nothing be done to relieve this terrible agany?

"Yes," is the answer given by Dr. Laury McHenry, a colebrated physician who has devoted a life time to the study and cure of just such troubles as these. He says:

Take things easy. Do not fret. Do what you can and don't worry about work left undone. Sleep more than you do. Now there are many means of speedy relief, but the cure that I want you to make is thorough, complete and lasting, and like all things well done requires patience. Yo sum it all up: The undical permanent cure for sick head.

quires patience. Yo sum it all up: The radical, permanent cure for sick head ache in weak, nervous women must conbine the following: A general toning of the system, regular habits, and plenty of sieep at the right time."

Yes, you say, I would gladly try anything to be freed from the suffering I endure, but how is it to be done? What shall I take for it? There are so many remedies, how am I to choose the right one? These are reasonable questions: one? These are reasonable questions; there are so many tonics, nervines, sar-saparillas and other conceptions claimed to be ready reliefs, but which, in reality, only make matters worse. Physicians will tell you that there is only one safe and reliable cure known to medical science that really does soothe and neurish the worn out nerves, perma-nently cures headache of every kind, and strengthens the system. What this great remedy is and what it will do for great remedy is and what it will do for suffering women is best told in the words of some who have tested it. Here is what a few well known women have to say about its wonderful powers:

Helen Ashland Kean, who wrote, "When the Tide Comes In," and many other popular songs, and who resides at Hartford. Conn., says: "One year ago I lay at death's door, a complete mental and physical wreck. I had neither hope nor ambition enough to desire life. My dear little children had ceased to give me joy or cheer. I was moody by day, despondent and sleepless at night. At times I fell into a sort of trance, losing all power over nerve or muscle. My feet all power over nerve or muscle. My feet and hands were like ice and my heart almost pulseless. In such a state, my nurse and friend administered something for which I was always profoundly grateful. The first dose imparted warmth to my body. I began to gain visibly, rapidly and steadily, day by day. I feel feel now as if I could endure everything without its tiring me, and it is all due to that grand discovery, that wenderful specific for the nerves that conquers all For the above occasion the G R & I. My literary labors are such that I write sometimes far into the 'wee sma hours,' consuming the midnight oil, but not as of yore consuming brain, nerve and muscle without their being replenished. I would not be without this grand compound for its weight in gold."

To the same effect are the carnest, out-speken words of Mrs. C. E. Prescott, who resides at No. 8 Worcester St., Cambridgeport, Mass., which are as fol-

I have had nervous headacles of the worst surf. I have taken several bottles of Paine's celery compound and find it the only thing that helps me. I heart life to all suffering from the compaint with which I was afflicted, for this compound has done me such a marvelous amount of good that I want others to knew of its value.

Can anything be more convincing than this? And if this great compound could do so much for these ladies, may could do so much for these ladies, may it not be just what you require to pre-vent the coming on of untimely age, the withering of the energies, and drooping of the life? If this great dis-covery has been so grand a friend of thousands, does it not stand to reason
